

SOCIETY

Several engagements of note have recently been announced and the weeks immediately following Easter Sunday will chronicle the celebration of several big church weddings. Society is decidedly interested in charity affairs these days, since most of the at-homes ended with the beginning of Lent, and only small affairs, scattered days and days apart, will take place between now and the first week following the close of the penitential season.

Numbers of people have gone North to have intimate talks with their own particular dressmakers about the cut of skirts and the shape of bonnets. Still others are at Southern resorts making new records in tennis and golf and deciding where they are going when summer time really comes. There is a regular legion of tea rooms open for the amusement of those of that mind and almost every organization in town, churchily inclined, has opened a tea room this Lent, and one takes one's best companion out for a walk and ends the disputation by committing terrible excesses on green tea at one of these places. They are very interesting, and the fact that one does not perform here to no to the same place all the time, makes it a matter of much more interest to society.

Some few weddings of interest will be celebrated this month, but most of the fastenings take place in April or June and are carried off in great style with garden parties, weather always permitting, and other charming modes of entertaining guests in warm days.

At present, society people will go their way much as they choose. A small dinner here and a nice cozy luncheon there, with no particular round of functions that one must attend. Perhaps it is more interesting than all the fuss of the season, at any rate it surely improves one's mind and gives a body a chance to gaze into a fashion book once in a while.

Concerning the Kilmers. The Kilmers, or more properly the Spiegarteners, to be given in the City Auditorium, April 12 and 13, under the direction of the Associated Charities and the A. P. V. A., will be a beautiful, spectacular event, and should arouse the interest and enthusiasm of the whole city. The Kilmers given here many years ago was one of the most beautiful and successful entertainments ever given in Richmond. The Spiegartenfest will be more beautiful under the supervision of a woman of experience and ability, Miss Lila Brewster, who has it in charge, and who is a national reputation as an artist in her line. So great is the demand for Miss Brewster's services, that she had to be engaged a whole year ahead. She travels from coast to coast giving these entertainments, having recently given similar affairs in California, Washington and a third in Norfolk.

A brilliant success has been predicted for the entertainment in this city, and those taking part in the dances include the prominent society people in Richmond. The audience will be very fashionable one and every one in town is interested in the production.

Miss Monday. The Honorable Clerk of King's Daughters will meet on Monday afternoon, March 4, at the residence of Mrs. Moses Carter, 2041 East Broad Street, at 4 o'clock. All members are requested to be present at this meeting.

Guest of Mrs. Lathrop. Miss Roberta Edmund Radcliffe is the guest of Mrs. Luther Dawson at her home, 9 East Franklin Street. Miss Radcliffe is well-known in this city, where she formerly made her home, and is a granddaughter of the late Dr. Woodbridge, with a great many relatives and friends in Richmond. Miss Radcliffe now makes her home on Long Island.

Prominent Engagement. An engagement of interest to society here, recently announced, is that of Miss Betty Green Houston, daughter of Captain Houston, of San Antonio, Texas, to Captain Thomas Worthington Hollyday, U. S. A., formerly of Baltimore.

Captain Hollyday is a son of the late George T. Hollyday, of Washington, and a grandson of the late Thomas Chever Worthington, of Worthington Valley, Baltimore county. The wedding will take place in April, at Spanish Pass Ranch, the home of the Houston family, near San Antonio.

Sailed for Bermuda. Miss Mary Ball Saunders and her brother, Richard Saunders, left town Friday of this week for New York from which city they sailed on Saturday morning for Bermuda. Miss Saunders and her brother will spend two weeks in Bermuda. Before returning to Richmond, Miss Saunders will go to Atlantic City, where she will be with her grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Saunders, until after Easter.

Engagements of Interest. One of the spring weddings of interest will be that of Miss Doris Eleanor Tobson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Tobson, formerly of Richmond, now of New York, to William Nathaway Boyd. The wedding will take place Tuesday evening, April 16, at the Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church, in Newark.

Goodwin, of 2221 Monument Avenue, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lucy Randolph, to Jesse Porter Donnelly, of Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Cottrell announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lucille Shoel, to Harold Ingram Williams, of Savannah, Ga. The wedding will be celebrated March 20, at the home of the bride, 11 Felder Street, America, Ga. The bride-elect has a great many relatives and friends in this city, who are interested in the announcement of her approaching marriage.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Squibb, of Brooklyn, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Caroline, to Henry H. Staphin, of Brooklyn. The engagement is of great interest here, where Miss Squibb has frequently visited as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frances H. Squibb, and where she has many friends. The wedding will take place in June.

Marriage of Miss Eva Gertrude Powers. The marriage of Miss Eva Gertrude Powers, of this city, and Alfred E. Matthews, of South Hill, took place on Wednesday, February 28, at Warrenton, N. C. On their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will make their home at South Hill.

Story-Tellers' League. The Story-Tellers' League of Richmond, recently organized, held its first regular meeting at Virginia Mechanics' Institute on Wednesday evening, February 28, with a large attendance and the manifestation of much interest in the plan of work outlined for the coming months of the present school session. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Lucy S. Coleman; Vice-President, Miss Lou Belle Catesby Jones; Secretary, Miss Edith McCarthy; Treasurer, Miss Mary R. Lee; Librarian, Miss Susan R. McSeven. A membership committee of seven members is under the chairmanship of Miss Annie Warthen. The league will meet monthly on the third Wednesday at 4:30 P. M.

Following some discussion and tentative program of work there were story-tellers who delighted their audience with stories of great beauty and artistic rendering. Those who took part in this, the most delightful part of the program, were Miss Jones, Miss Edith Archer and Miss Donna Sheahan.

Pink Tulips and Spring Flowers. Mrs. William A. Crenshaw was hostess of one of the prettiest luncheons of last week, given at the Country Club on Friday afternoon, March 2. Covers were laid for twenty. Place cards were enclosed with dainty hand-painted wreaths of spring flowers, and the centerpiece of the table, lighted with pink-capped candles in silver holders, was a silver bowl of pink tulips fringed with maidenhair ferns.

Charming little favors were coronet wreaths of ribbon roses, which were detached from amaranth handles on a grape fruit course and placed in the hair of guests around the luncheon table.

Attractive Tea Room. The tea given at the Rosemary Library on Thursday afternoon in cash week from half-past 1 until half-after 6 o'clock has proved a very interesting and attractive diversion. The tables are prettily decorated, and number of young girls serve tea. Mrs. J. Burbridge Halyburton will be hostess for this Thursday afternoon, and will have assisting her in receiving Mrs. John Southall, Mrs. J. C. Robertson, Mrs. Ben O. Jones, Mrs. W. A. Witherspoon, Miss Amy Lytle, Mrs. T. Archer Cary, Mrs. George Bryan and others.

Those receiving and the young girls serving the guests will wear pinned on their gowns the designed names of most of the new books purchased by the library during the past year.

Meeting Last Wednesday. The State board meeting of the National Society, United States Daughters of 1812, met on Wednesday morning at the Jefferson Hotel. Mrs. Charles Gibson, president of the organization, presided with three visiting members and members of the local board present. The president was here looking after Virginia interests in the coming memorial celebration. It is proposed to erect a statue in memory of Major Charles James Faulkner, Captain of the 1st Virginia Cavalry, who fought so bravely on "Rough Island" in defense of Norfolk and Hampton June 22, 1812. Mrs. Cassin, of Staunton, was made chairman of the monument committee.

At the Woman's Club. "The Hardy Annual" will make its sixth appearance at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Archer Jones as editor-in-chief. Her staff will be composed of Mrs. William G. Starnard, book reviews, Miss Mary Day Winn, woman's page, and Mrs. L. R. Loomis, Miss Emma Whitfield and Miss Winn as contributors. Miss Jean Field will be chairman of the day.

Mr. Bolling Plays in Ashland. Winston Bolling was one of the guests at the reception given at the Henry Clay Inn to the Ashland Music Club by Mrs. Hand, of Boston. The following is taken from the Ashland Herald:

"Each of these numbers received enthusiastic applause from the large number of music lovers present. This was the first appearance of Mr. Bolling, the pianist from Richmond, before an Ashland audience. For one so young his playing is remarkable. His two numbers were beautifully rendered, the second, Gottschalk's 'Tremolo,' being played with great accuracy and rapid tempo. He was greeted with continued applause and requests for more music.

The two numbers were Johannes Brahms's composition and Gottschalk's famous concert waltz study, 'Il Tremolo.'"

Of Interest Here. From Washington comes the following item of interest here:

The wives of Democratic statesmen are not going to be outdone in the way of jubilee and harmony feasts, for a large number, headed by Mrs. Champ Clark, Mrs. Oscar Underwood and others, are arranging for a Dolly Madison Maytime breakfast. It is planned to hold the feast on May 20 of this year, and the place to be selected is one of the large hotels in Washington. The object of the breakfast is to bring together the women of the party in much the same fashion as the men came to gether from time to time. The women in charge so far are Mrs. Champ Clark, Mrs. Oscar Underwood and Mrs. Henry D. Clayton. A list of prominent women already decided upon to be invited includes Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. Allen B. Parker and Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson. Besides these the wives of all the Democratic candidates whose names will come before the Baltimore convention are included in the invited list. The idea of holding the Maytime breakfast started at a luncheon given by Mrs. Robert W. Wickliffe, wife of the member of Congress from Louisiana, a committee of arrangements was named, with Mrs. Clayton as chairman and Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Underwood as advisory members.

At the Art Club. Last Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, Admiral Webster gave an interesting talk on his personal experiences during the famous wreck of the Canby, at Samoa, on March 15 and 16, 1889. Admiral Webster was attached to the Canby at that time, and his discourse had to do with the various incidents of that stirring occasion and the main reason for the presence of so many warships in that out-of-the-way part of the world.

The attendance at these weekly talks is steadily on the increase, and the efforts of the management of the club to secure interesting subjects for these lectures have so far met with deserved success.

Next Tuesday the club will be entertained by Miss Mary Day Winn with an account of "College Days at Vassar," on which subject Miss Winn is pre-eminently capable of giving interesting and valuable details.

Plans are now being formulated for work during the rapidly approaching spring in the various classes of the Art School, with every prospect of a successful termination to the school year in May.

It has not yet been determined what direction the usual exhibition will take this year.

Meetings This Week. The Council of Social Workers will meet on Tuesday afternoon, March 5, at the Fern Leaf. The meeting was not held last Tuesday, and a large attendance is desired at the meeting Tuesday. The regular monthly meeting of the Branch at Allen Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday morning of this week at 11 o'clock in the annex to Murphy's Hotel. Important business will come before the meeting and all members of the organization are urged to be present.

The monthly meeting of the Council of Jewish Women will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock in the Sabbath school room of Temple Beth Abraham. After the general business has been discussed, the following program will be given: "The Kindergarten as Social Factor," by Miss Ruth Floyd Anderson; "Instruction of Folk Dances," by nine young girls, students of the Richmond Training School for Kindergarten; accompanied by Mrs. Frank W. Duke, and Miss Belle Johnson, pianist; vocal solo, by Mrs. Ida Clark, accompanied by Miss Carrie Clark. A social hour will follow, and members and their friends are most cordially invited to attend.

There will be an important meeting of the Oakwood Memorial Association on Thursday afternoon, March 7, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the president, Mrs. John Hughes, 519 North Twenty-ninth Street.
